CONFIDENTIALITY

Participation in the support group requires mutual trust and respect. Please respect the privacy, confidentiality, well-being, and opinions of your fellow group members. Everything heard and discussed in the group must remain confidential.

DISCUSSION/GROUP GUIDELINES

- Give others the opportunity to participate. Keep your story, updates or questions brief, so others will have a chance to speak.
- Please feel free to speak or ask questions or just to listen.
- Be mindful about making comments that could be fear-inducing for others who are at an early stage and facing challenging treatments.
- Please refrain from criticism: respect individual choices and experiences.
- If you wish to contact another member directly, please ask the group leader to arrange a connection.
- We are a patient-led group run entirely by volunteers.

VIRTUAL MEETINGS

- Please use the mute option on Zoom meetings to avoid background noise when others are speaking.
- Raise your hand to indicate you would like to speak to avoid overstepping other speakers
- Use that chat option to send comments or questions
